

Johns Hopkins Greenberg Bladder Cancer Institute

2025 GRAND ROUNDS SCHEDULE

JOHNS HOPKINS
MEDICINE

September 16 | 4 PM - 5 PM

JH Clinical Trials Update: Discovery for Better Outcomes

Join Greenberg Bladder Cancer Institute leaders, Women's Bladder Cancer Program Co-Leader Jeannie Hoffman-Censits, MD, and Co-Director, Greenberg Bladder Cancer Institute Noah Hahn, MD, to hear important updates on clinical trials in bladder cancer.

October 14 | 4 PM - 5 PM

Managing Chemo Induced Neuropathy

Join Mikaela Olson, DNP, APRN-CNS, AOCNS, FAAN, Clinical Program Director for Oncology, for an informative session on the treatment and management of chemotherapy induced neuropathy.

November 11 | 4 PM - 5 PM

Genetics: What do we know? What is Actionable?

Join Kala Visvanathan, MD, MHS, Professor Epidemiology and Oncology, Director of Clinical Cancer Genetics and Prevention Service at the Johns Hopkins Kimmel Cancer Center, to learn more about the role of genetics in bladder cancer.

December 9 | 4 PM - 5 PM

From Pathology to Remedy: The Cells Tell the Story

Join Dr. Tamara Lotan, the Rose-Lee and Keith Reinhard Professor in Urologic Pathology, Director of Research at the Brady Urological Institute, and collaborator in the Greenberg Bladder Cancer Institute, for this informative talk on the critical role of pathology in understanding, managing, and informing care for patients and research.

For questions, please reach out to bladdercancer@jhmi.edu